

Privacy Policy

Faith Wireless, LLC (hereinafter known as “Provider,” “us” or “we”) currently owns and operates the website known as www.faithwireless.com (the “Site”). To better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our homepage and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested. The term "you" refers to the user or viewer of our Site.

We are committed to protecting your privacy and committed to developing technology that gives you the most powerful and secure online experience.

Billing and personal information is encrypted whenever transmitted or received online. Personal information is accessible only to staff, agents, or contractors of Provider.

This privacy statement applies to all Provider-owned websites and domains. This privacy statement covers personally identifiable information, anonymous data collection and aggregate reporting. Personally identifiable information is any information that is associated with your name or personal identity. However, personally identifiable information does not include any information you upload or publish to the Site and make publicly available to other users or members. All users have the ability to control the privacy options for their online account.

What we collect

During the registration and/or purchase process, the types of personal information you provide to us may include, name, address, phone, fax, email address, license number, date of birth, username and password, billing information, transaction, and credit card information.

When you browse our Site, you must log in with your username and password. We do log your IP address (the Internet address of your computer) to give us an idea of which part of our Site you visit and how long you spend there. Like many other commercial websites, the Provider Site may use a standard technology called a "cookie" to collect information about how you use the Site. Please go to "Use of Cookies" below for more information.

How we use it

We may use your personal information for the following purposes:

- To make the site easier for you to use by not making you enter your personal information more than once.
- To deliver products or services that you request or purchase.
- To help you effectively complete your purchase or transaction.
- To help us create and publish content most relevant to you.
- To alert you of product additions, upgrades, special offers, updated information and other new products and services provided by Provider.

- To provide feedback in an online survey.
- To participate in promotional offers.
- To request assistance or fill out support requests.
- To complete returns and provide and process refunds or store credits.

Who we share it with

We never sell or rent your personal information. Provider may disclose your personal information if required to do so by law (for example, a subpoena) or regulation, or in good faith: (a) to comply with legal processes served on the Site; (b) to protect the rights and property of Provider; (c) when our records indicate fraudulent activity or other deceptive practices that a governmental agency should be made aware of; or (d) when your communication suggests possible harm to others.

Provider may transfer information about users if Provider is acquired by or merged with another company. Provider is not responsible for notifying any user of such changes.

When you register, Provider will not share your information with third parties without your permission, other than for the limited exceptions already listed. It will only be used for the purposes stated above. We use personal information to reply to inquiries, handle complaints, complete returns, provide operational notices, keep records up to date to notify you via periodic e-mails of technical service issues, specials, or other related product/service information. Your information may be shared with agents or contractors of Provider for the purpose of performing services for Provider.

Internet Commerce

The online registration at the Provider Site is designed to give you options concerning the privacy of your credit card information, name, address, e-mail and any other information you provide us. Provider is committed to data security with respect to information collected on our site. We offer the industry standard security measures available through your browser called SSL encryption.

Security of your Personal Information

Provider strictly protects the security of your personal information. We carefully protect your data from loss, misuse, unauthorized access or disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

Your personal information is never shared outside the company without your permission, except under conditions explained above. Inside the company, data is stored in servers protected by Firewall.

You also have a significant role in protecting your information. No one can see or edit your personal information without knowing your username and password, so do not share these with others.

We use SSL encryption when collecting or transferring sensitive data such as credit card and personal information. Credit card numbers are only used for processing payment and are not used for other purposes. Our efforts to protect credit card fraud help protect your financial data security.

Access to your Personal Information

We will provide you with the means to ensure that your personal information is correct and current. You may review and update this information at any time by logging into your account.

To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity, such as password and username, before granting access to your data.

Use of Cookies

Our Site is not setup to track, collect or distribute personal information. Our Site does generate certain kinds of non-identifying site usage data, such as number of hits and visits to our Site. This information is used for internal purposes only. The statistics contain no personal information and cannot be used to gather such information.

Our Site uses "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web page server in the domain that issued the cookie to you. You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser settings to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Provider's Site or other websites you visit.

Problems or complaints with Provider's Privacy Policy

We value your comments and opinions. If you have questions, comments or a complaint about compliance with this privacy policy you may contact us at (919) 336-1070.
